

e. The State will furnish the architect a limited consulting service consisting of a complete site survey, soil analysis, and a program of the work outlining in detail the space requirements, and their general arrangement, and the standards of types of construction.

f. When continuous field supervision or a clerk-of-the-works is deemed necessary by the State, such supervisory personnel shall be furnished by the State subject to approval by the architect. Such supervisory personnel shall be employees of the State.

ARTICLE VII. SAVING CLAUSE

If any section, sentence, clause, or part of this Act shall for any reason be held to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act, and it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature to have passed each sentence, section, clause, or part thereof, irrespective of the fact that any other sentence, section, clause or part thereof may be declared invalid.

ARTICLE VIII. EMERGENCY CLAUSE

The importance of this legislation to the people of the State of Texas, and the crowded condition of the Calendars in both Houses of the Legislature, create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended; and said Rule is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after September 1, 1955.
